FIRM ATTORNEYS PRESENT CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION SEMINAR ON SETTLING AUTO INSURANCE CLAIMS

ORLANDO, Fla. (May 9 2007) – Samuel King and Kenneth McKenna, partners with the Orlando law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, recently served as faculty presenters for the National Business Institute’s seminar on “Settling Uninsured and Underinsured Motorist Claims.” The continuing education seminar took place in Orlando, Fla. on April 24 and was approved for seven CLE credits by the Florida Bar.

The seminar addressed the latest in coverage and legislative trends as well as topics that included dealing with comparative negligence, handling claims involving multiple tortfeasors, bad faith claims and interpreting exclusions and limitations of coverage.

King and McKenna are AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell, a recognition from their peers that they have the highest levels of skill and integrity. In addition, King is board certified in civil trial law by the Florida Bar. Their areas of practice include personal injury, wrongful death, automobile accidents, medical malpractice, nursing home negligence, defective products, premises liability and insurance company bad faith.

NBI is one of the largest providers of continuing legal education in the nation, providing CLE and professional education to more than 100,000 attorneys, accountants and other business professionals each year.
