FIRM ATTORNEYS DISCUSS SETTLING AUTO INSURANCE CLAIMS AT CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION SEMINAR

ORLANDO, Fla. (May 8, 2008) – Samuel King and Anthony Sos, attorneys with the Orlando law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, served as faculty presenters for the National Business Institute’s seminar on “Settling Uninsured and Underinsured Motorist Claims.” The seminar took place in Orlando, Fla. on May 5 and was approved by The Florida Bar for 7.0 general hours of CLER credit.

The program addressed the latest in coverage and legislative trends as well as topics that included what the insurer is – and isn’t – responsible for and litigating UM/UIM claims with confidence.

King is board certification in civil trial law by the Florida Bar and AV Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, indicating that he is recognized by his peers to have the highest levels of skill and integrity. His practice focuses on personal injury, wrongful death, automobile accidents, medical malpractice, nursing home negligence, defective products, premises liability and insurance company bad faith.

Sos is a trial attorney whose practice focuses on personal injury, nursing home abuse and neglect, auto accidents, wrongful death, insurance company bad faith and hurricane property damage claims. He earned his law degree from the University of Florida in 2003 and his undergraduate degree in legal studies from the University of Central Florida.

NBI is one of the largest providers of continuing legal education in the nation, providing CLE and professional education to more than 100,000 attorneys, accountants and other business professionals each year.
