SOS SPEAKS AT LEGAL PROFESSIONALISM AND ETHICS SEMINAR American Association for Justice Sponsors Barry Law School Presentation

ORLANDO, Fla. (October 22, 2008) – Anthony F. Sos, an associate with the law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, served as a panelist for a seminar on “Professionalism and Ethics” presented by the American Association for Justice. The seminar for students enrolled in Barry University’s College of Law took place in Orlando, Fla. on October 20, 2008.

The program addressed a wide range of topics including the significance of maintaining a professional and ethical law practice, the adverse consequences of engaging in unprofessional and unethical behavior, appropriate and inappropriate conduct in front of a judge and how the reputation of a first year attorney can carry through the rest of a career.

Sos is a trial attorney whose practice focuses on personal injury, nursing home abuse and neglect, auto accidents, wrongful death, insurance company bad faith and hurricane property damage claims. A member of the Orange County Bar Association’s Young Lawyers Section board of directors, he earned his law degree from the University of Florida and his undergraduate degree in legal studies from the University of Central Florida.

Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, LLP (www.dwklaw.com) is a plaintiff’s personal injury law firm dedicated to serving clients who have suffered serious injury through the negligence of others.
