ORLANDO LAW FIRM CELEBRATES 20 YEARS

Honor Defines Attorneys' Legal Practice and Service to the Community and Profession

ORLANDO, Fla. (May 5, 2009) – The law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier is marking its 20th anniversary in 2009. The firm's reputation is defined as much by its commitment to community service and service to the legal profession as it is by its referral-focused business philosophy and success at litigating complex personal injury cases that have substantial damages.

"From the very beginning, we decided not to participate in the pervasive advertising so common among personal injury law firms," said partner Sam King. "Instead, we rely on referrals from other attorneys, along with former clients and friends in the community, who know our reputation for being tough, but fair, trial lawyers who work hard for our clients in an honorable manner. It has proven to be a strategy that serves us well."

The firm's five partners are AV Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, indicating the highest levels of skill and integrity as regarded by their peers. Additionally, three of the partners are board certified in civil trial law by the Florida Bar.

The firm's level of commitment to community service and service to the legal profession is notable for its size. Currently, the five partners each serve in multiple leadership positions. They include:

- Chairman, Coalition for the Homeless of Central Florida
- President, March of Dimes Florida Chapter, Central Florida Division
- President, Central Florida Trial Lawyers Association
- Vice Chair, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Florida
- Vice President, American Board of Trial Advocates, Central Florida Chapter
- Winter Park YMCA Board of Directors
- Morning Star Charities Board of Directors
- Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Commission

Other past involvements include president of the Orange County Bar Association; chairman of the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Fifth District Court of Appeal, the Orange County Charter Review Commission and the Orlando Civil Service Board; and vice president and general counsel for the Boy Scouts of America, Central Florida Council.

Several of the attorneys serve as guardian ad litem for abused and neglected children. The firm also uses its annual holiday open house to collect donations for local non-profit organizations.
