ATTORNEY DISCUSSES NURSING HOME NEGLIGENCE CASES AT CONTINUING EDUCATION SEMINAR

ORLANDO, Fla. (January 5, 2006) – Anthony F. Sos, an attorney with the law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, recently served as a faculty presenter for a seminar on “Nursing Home Negligence in Florida.” The continuing education seminar, offered by Lorman Education Services, took place in Orlando, Fla. on November 30 and was approved for CLE credit by the Florida Bar.

Sos’ presentation focused on what plaintiff attorneys should consider when deciding whether to represent victims of nursing home negligence and abuse. Mr. Sos also provided and discussed a detailed pre-suit nursing home check list from the plaintiff’s perspective. Topics included the factors to consider before taking a nursing home case and the components of a pre-suit checklist from initial intake through pre-suit investigation, and Chapter 400 requirements to filing the complaint.

Lorman Education Services, a division of Lorman Business Center, Inc., is a leading provider of continuing education seminars in the United States and Canada, organizing continuing education seminar for professionals since 1987.
