FIRM SPONSORS FUNDRAISER FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN AND FAMILIES May 3rd “Hearts of Gold” event to benefit the Coalition for the Homeless

ORLANDO, Fla. (April 13, 2006) – For the second consecutive year, Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier has signed on as the presenting sponsor for the annual “Hearts of Gold” event benefiting the Coalition for the Homeless of Central Florida. Firm partner Brian Wilson serves on the non-profit organization’s board of directors.

Last year, the Coalition provided 240,000 nights of shelter and 360,000 meals to Central Florida’s homeless men, women and children. The organization has seen an increasing number of families who need an immediate safety net of services to survive, and on any given night up to 200 children call the Coalition home.

The May 3rd event at the Bob Carr Performing Arts Center will feature a cocktail reception; silent auction and performance by 1960s musical and comedy group “The Turtles with Flo and Eddie.” For ticket information, contact the Coalition for the Homeless at (407) 426-1256.
