McKENNA NAMED TO RONALD McDONALD HOUSE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ORLANDO, Fla. (April 6, 2006) – Kenneth J. McKenna, a partner with the law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, has been elected to the board of directors of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Florida, Inc.

McKenna is AV® Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, indicating that he is recognized by his peers to have the highest levels of skill and integrity. His practice areas include nursing home negligence, insurance company bad faith and medical malpractice.

The Ronald McDonald House is a not-for-profit organization that provides a “home-away-from-home” for families with children receiving medical treatment at local hospitals in Orlando. Since 1996, the program has housed more than 6,800 families at its two Central Florida locations on the campuses of Florida Hospital Orlando and the Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children & Women.

Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, LLP (www.dwklaw.com) is a referral-based personal injury law firm dedicated to serving clients who have suffered serious injury through the negligence of others. Founded in 1989, the firm has six attorneys and 17 support staff, and practices in the areas of personal injury and wrongful death, medical malpractice, products liability, nursing home abuse, insurance bad faith and business torts. The firm serves clients located throughout the State of Florida.
