KING AMONG FACULTY FOR ADVANCED TRIAL ADVOCACY SEMINAR Florida Bar CLE program provides hands-on training for experienced trial lawyers

ORLANDO, Fla. (June 20, 2006) – Samuel King, an attorney in the law firm Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, served as an instructor for the Florida Bar's Continuing Legal Education seminar on Advanced Trial Advocacy in Gainesville, Fla. on May 9-13.

The annual seminar uses a hands-on method of performance, critique and video review proven to be effective in teaching trial skills. It is intended for attorneys who have practiced a minimum of five years and have participated in a significant number of jury trials.

King is AV® Rated by Martindale-Hubbell and board certified in civil trial law by the Florida Bar. His practice focuses on personal injury, wrongful death, automobile accidents, medical malpractice, nursing home negligence, defective products, premises liability and insurance company bad faith.

Dellecker, Wilson, King, McKenna & Ruffier, LLP (www.dwklaw.com) is a referral-based personal injury law firm dedicated to serving clients who have suffered serious injury through the negligence of others. Founded in 1989, the firm has six attorneys and 17 support staff, and practices in the areas of personal injury, wrongful death, auto accidents, medical malpractice, products liability, nursing home abuse, premises liability, insurance bad faith and business torts. The firm serves clients located throughout the State of Florida.
