
tort REPORT

v.3 2011

On the MOVE A NEW YEAR,
A NEW NAME

DELLECKER
WILSON
KING
McKENNA
RUFFIER
& SOS

We are proud to announce the firm has officially changed its name to reflect the addition of our newest partner, Anthony Sos. The firm's name change is a reflection of our continued growth and success. Sos has distinguished himself in the courtroom by consistently trying cases and achieving significant verdicts on behalf of his clients. Dellecker Wilson King McKenna Ruffier & Sos is stronger than ever and the future is bright.

ADVANCEMENT & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Sam King and Ken McKenna served as faculty presenters for The National Business Institute's seminar, "Plaintiff's Personal Injury from Start to Finish". Their information-packed seminar, which covered practical strategies and best practices for handling personal injury cases, received vast praise. One of the seminar attendees shared his thoughts saying, "It was easily the best seminar I have attended. I was very impressed with both Mr. King and Mr. McKenna and came away with many ideas which I immediately put into practice."

W. Doug Martin was recently elected to serve as a member of the board of directors for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central and Northern Florida. As a board member, Martin will assist the charity in maintaining its status as the nation's largest wish granting organization.

Brian Wilson recently received the highest level of recognition by The Florida Bar by achieving re-certification in Civil Trial Law from the Board of Legal Specialization & Education. Wilson has been a Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer for 16 years, and has continuously been regarded as a legal professional committed to performing to the highest standards of conduct and professionalism.

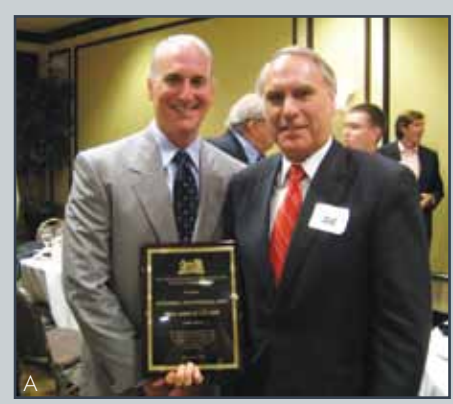

Central Florida Attorneys...

At WORK AMERICAN BOARD OF TRIAL ADVOCATES

Serving as the 2010 President of the Central Florida Chapter of The American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), Sam King worked throughout the year to elevate the standards of integrity, honor and courtesy in the legal profession. The Central Florida Chapter celebrated the successes of 2010 at its annual Judiciary Luncheon, which was attended by many distinguished and respected legal professionals including 2010 "Trial Attorney of the Year", Bud Kirk of Rumberger Kirk & Caldwell Law Firm and "Trial Judge of the Year", Honorable John Marshall Kest.

From left to right:
A: ABOTA Central Florida Chapter President, Sam King, and "Trial Judge of the Year", Honorable John Marshall Kest;
B: Sam King congratulates Bud Kirk for his achievement, 2010 "Trial Lawyer of the Year".

In the COMMUNITY TOGETHER WE THRIVE

DWKMR&S is committed to making a positive difference in our community. Each lawyer dedicates their time and talent to several local charitable organizations. The March of Dimes, The Coalition for the Homeless of Central Florida, The Central Florida Fair, United Cerebral Palsy of Central Florida, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Florida, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central and Northern Florida, The Winter Park YMCA and Morning Star Charities are some of the philanthropic organizations that our firm has had the privilege to serve.

approximately $5,000. This monetary gift will greatly assist UCP in delivering support, education and therapy to special needs children throughout Central Florida. Anthony Sos, our newly appointed partner in the firm, currently serves as a board member for UCP.

DWKMR&S also had the privilege of sponsoring the 11th annual Ronald McDonald House Clambake. This traditional New England clambake "Florida Style" is a premier fundraiser for the The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Florida (RMHCCF), which provides a "home-away-from-home" to families with children who are receiving medical treatment at local hospitals and medical facilities. Ken McKenna proudly serves as the organization's Chairman.

From top left, clockwise:
A: Some of UCP of Central Florida's very merry staff and students say thank you!
B: Ken & Jen McKenna with Lou Ann DeVoogd, Executive Director of RMHCCF;
C: Firm partners and guests enjoy the "Florida Style" clambake benefitting RMHCCF.

Interested in co-counseling your case? [407] 244.3000

|DELLECKER | WILSON | KING | MCKENNA | RUFFIER | & SOS |
719 Vassar Street Orlando, Florida 32804
[407] 244.3000 www.dwklaw.com

tort REPORT

v.3 2011