On the MOVE

As we approach the final quarter of the calendar year, DWKMR&S wishes to thank our clients, our peers, and our community for the opportunity to serve you and make a positive difference in your lives. We pride ourselves on being a firm that delivers legal expertise from a team of decorated professionals who are committed to providing personalized attention, and have the willingness and ability to invest significant funds and resources so that each client has every opportunity to achieve justice. We recognize that the field of personal injury is flooded with firms, and we are honored that you have entrusted DWKMR&S with your future.

With gratitude,
Bob Dellecker

DWKLAW.COM 2.0

This November, the firm debuted a new and improved website. Videos and podcasts are just some of the new interactive resources designed to guide clients through every step of the legal process. Visit our site, and let us know what you think. After all, it was designed to better serve you!

"With a handshake we became a team. Through the process we became friends. In the end, we celebrated like family and gave thanks for the opportunity to rebuild our life."

At WORK

DWKMR&S EDUCATES THE PUBLIC VIA SOCIAL MEDIA

After years of representing victims who have suffered life changing personal injuries, DWKMR&S has launched a series of educational safety videos that cover topics ranging from "Beach Safety Tips" to "Recall of Pourable Gel Fuel Due To Burn Injuries". The videos are broadcast via the firm's website, Facebook page, Twitter and YouTube video channel. DWKMR&S encourages you to share these informative videos with your friends and families.

Sam King joined Ringler Radio host Larry Cohen on the air waves this past August to discuss the recent decision of the 5th District Court of Appeals in Florida to reverse an earlier court ruling that prohibited the annuity in a structured settlement for a minor child. The full audio podcast available on our website www.dwklaw.com.
